1. EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

NACVSO Overview

For over three decades, the National Association of County Veteran Service Officers (NACVSO) has remained at the forefront of a noble mission — to empower and educate County, Tribal and Governmental Veteran Service Officers and advocates by equipping them with the knowledge and tools required to navigate the complex terrain of veterans' benefits and services offered by the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA). Established in 1989, NACVSO is now an established leader in the field, recognized for its passionate commitment to assisting our nation's veterans and their dependents.

NACVSO's journey is one of unwavering dedication and continuous evolution. While its roots are planted in the delivery of top-tier training and education to Veteran Service Officers, it has evolved into a multi-dimensional organization, advocating tirelessly for veterans and their advocates, and influencing policy that directly impacts those who served our nation in uniform. NACVSO's advocacy efforts continue to garner respect and recognition, making them one of the most respected voices in matters of legislative and VA policy.

Today, NACVSO boasts a robust community of over XXXX CVSO members across XX states and territories – and counting. Its strength and reach have positioned it for both operational stability and strategic expansion.

Strategic Planning Background

In early 2019, the NACVSO Executive Board, Committee Chairs and dedicated staff initiated the organization's inaugural strategic planning process. This transformative process defined the organization's goals and actionable strategies and focused on two foundational points: the capacity to hire full-time staff and enhancement of the appeals representation process.

Despite the COVID-19 global pandemic, which presented historic uncertainty and risk to all organizations, NACVSO adapted to the ever-changing landscape for Veteran Service Organizations, even advancing the relevance of its mission. With innovation, determination, and a deep sense of purpose, NACVSO reinvented its approach to programming and internal operations during this time.

Today, NACVSO has an opportunity to continue its legacy of unwavering support for CVSO's in the revision of its strategic plan, to ensure that veterans and their families are better met with the care and benefits they deserve. This strategic plan is not just a roadmap for the future, it is a testament to NACVSO's dedication to the veterans it proudly serves.
